FEAST OF THE PASSOVER IS NEAR AT HAND

Hebrews throughout the World Prepare for the Important Event.

The Feast of Passover, containing for eight days, from April 10th to 18th, will be observed by the Jewish people all over the world, and local Hebrews are already preparing for the festival. The services of the Feast of Passover are among the most beautiful of the ancient Hebrew customs, and during them the hardships endured by the Hebrews of ancient times are recalled, as well as many of the privileges enjoyed at the present time in the civilized nations of the world.

Passover has from remote antiquity been taken to commemorate the deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt after 430 years of bitter servitude. The account of the sufferings of the Israelites and the liberation occupies the first fifteen chapters of the Book of Exodus. During the week of the Passover the observant Jew abstains from the unleavened substances. Instead of eating the ordinary yeast bread, a species of large cracker called Matzos, or unleavened bread, is eaten.

Before the Passover arrives the observant Jew scrupulously removes from his premises every crumb of leaven that he is able to find and during this week the Jew of rigid orthodoxy will not even use the same dishes and cooking utensils in which during the rest of the year leavened food has been placed.

Perhaps the most significant and beautiful aspect of the Passover celebration is the "Seder" service which is held within the Jewish homes on the first evening of the feast, and among the orthodox Jews on the first and second evenings. The members of the family and their guests sit around the supper table, which is spread with festive elegance. Food appropriate for the occasion, including the unleavened Matzos, bitter herbs, parsley and the roasted shank bone are placed upon the table. The services for the occasion are read from a curious old book called the "Haggadah," which tells them with not a little wit, humor, pathos and sublimity, about the deliverance from Egypt, and the great act of divine mercy. This book has been translated into English, and as a rule the topic for pulpit disquisition on Passover, particularly in the form synagogues where preaching is a regular feature of the service, is some thought related to theme of liberty.

John T. Flynn, postmaster at Wilsonburg, was in the city Monday evening.

A NEW DISCOVERY.

A new discovery in the production of clean milk. It consists of clean farms, cows and clean udders, clean milkers, clean appliances. This produces pure wholesome milk, without theoretical or mechanical devices for the extraction of dirt. If you want this quality of milk without the cream taken out, get it from The Mountain View Dairy, which is open for inspection at all times.

There's the Beauty of Simplicity in This Aristocratic Colonial Pump.

It's quality adds the final charm to a dainty spring costume. Some costumes demand a more jaunty touch to set them off, but our exhibit of so many different styles, offers such a scope for selection that you are certain to find precisely the model to meet your requirements.
